ZooBrrrew at Seneca Park Zoo is back February 2 & 3

A portion of proceeds go towards elephant conservation

The Seneca Park Zoo Society's popular fundraising event, ZooBrrrew, returns Friday and Saturday, February 2 and 3. This 21-and-older winter happy hour is a fun and unique way to experience the Zoo. Bundle up and meet us in the heated Pavilion for comfort foods like a chicken wing bar and empanadas, s'more-making, a variety of beer and wine, and live music.

When: Friday & Saturday, February 2 & 3 | 5 p.m. – 8 p.m.

Cost: $30 for Zoo members; $35 for non-members.

Live music will be performed by Teagan Ward on February 2 and Amy Montrois on February 3.

Tickets include Zoo admission, food, live music, and a ticket to a summer ZooBrew event. A portion of each ticket sold will benefit the International Elephant Foundation, a nonprofit organization dedicated to saving elephants from extinction. Tickets are only sold online and will not be available at the Front Gate.

Internationally, and in our own backyard, Seneca Park Zoo plays a key role in species survival. Chartered as an educational institution in 1957 by New York State, the Seneca Park Zoo Society plays an integral role in supporting Monroe County, the owners and operators of the Zoo. Together, we are working to bring animals back from the brink of extinction.
